Is Blake Griffin Smashing Kate Upton?

Despite Kate Upton being linked to many different suitors ever since she split from Justin Verlander, she was recently spotted holding the gigantic hands of NBA star Blake Griffin during a romantic night out at an NYC hot spot.

The supermodel and Clippers star were seen at Beauty & Essex on Wednesday night getting very cozy with each other, according to a source.

Blake showed up to the venue around 10:30 to meet up with a few friends and Upton strolled in around 11:30, looking hot as ever, to join them.

They ate some lobster tacos, stuffed peppers and took down some shots of Don Julio before they moved to Avenue nightclub to continue partying together.

Whether they left together that night is unknown, but we do know one thing... if Blake is getting with Upton, we consider him one of the luckiest men in the world.
